What are Digital Products Anyway?

A digital product is something you create and sell online. Customers buy it and get instant access without waiting for a physical item to ship. You make it once, and many people can buy and download it

Examples:

- ▶ Audio Files
- ▶ Digital Art
- ▶ Reports
- ▶ eBook
- ▶ Journal Prompts
- ▶ Collectibles
- ▶ Worksheets
- ▶ Design Templates
- ▶ Video
- ▶ Planners
- ▶ Resume Templates
- ▶ lots more!

Imagine creating something once & earning from it repeatedly with little to no on going effort.

Digital products are your stepping stones to financial freedom.

This isn't a dream;
it's a tangible
reality that can start this weekend!

But What?

Your "Aha" Moment Awaits

Are you passionate about something that people keep asking you about? This could be your "Aha" moment!

Dive deep into social media, forums like Quora, Instagram, TikTok, Google, YouTube, etc. and your own network to find what people are desperate to know or have.

For example, "Look for frequently asked questions in your topic on Quora" or "Note down the kinds of problems people are complaining about in Instagram comments."

Dig Deep

Your Profitable Idea

Then ask yourself:

- ▶ What do people ask your advice about?
- ▶ What can you talk about for hours?
- ▶ Have you overcome challenges others could learn from?
- ▶ What digital products are others in my network selling successfully?
- ▶ Are there tools or templates I use daily that others might benefit from?
- ▶ What can I create that will not only resonate with my audience but also enrich their lives?

Is It Any Good?

Your Audience Knows Best

It's time to validate your idea. So lean into your community.

- ▶ Use polls on Instagram stories
- ▶ Conduct surveys
- ▶ Look on YouTube for similar questions
- ▶ Ask your email list what they're struggling with.

Your aim is to validate whether your digital product idea solves a genuine problem they're facing.

Gather all your research in Google Sheets to pinpoint which product idea has the most potential for impact and profit.

But I don't have an audience.

Now what?

Starting From 0?

Validation Without an Audience

Yes, It's Possible! Validate your idea even if you're starting from scratch.

- ▶ Use Existing Online Communities:

Websites like Reddit, Quora, or niche-specific forums can be gold mines. Search for threads where people discuss needs or problems your digital product could solve.

- ▶ Facebook Groups: There are Facebook groups for nearly every interest or profession. Join groups that talk about the thing you want to sell online. Watch what people are saying and ask questions to see if they're interested.

► Friends, Family, Your Networks:

If your idea fixes a problem your friends or family have, ask them what they think.

Your friends know other people, too. So, if they share your idea, you can learn a lot from what those people think.

► Competitor Analysis:

Look for similar products and see what kind of reviews and engagement they are getting. Are there gaps you could fill?

Improvements you could make?

Just like before, add all the comments and information you get into a Google Sheet.

Look for patterns, frequency of pain points, and any constructive feedback to validate and improve your idea.

Your Tools

This is What You Will Need

► Brainstorming Ideas:

Notion (Cost: $0): It helps you think of new ideas and plan them out. Perfect for creating a roadmap for your digital product.

► Tracking Your Research:

Google Sheets (Cost: $0): Use this to keep track of what works and what doesn't. You can also make templates that you sell.

► Designing Your Product:

Canva (Cost: $0): It has ready-made designs that you can use for inspiration. However in order to sell you need to create your own.

► Email Marketing:

Mailchimp (Cost: Free to start): Good for sending out emails to tell people about your product. You can also use it to collect email addresses

► Where to Sell Your Product:

These are a few places for listing your digital product for sale and handling payments. The cost for listing and payment is variable on each platform:

Gumroad ~ Etsy ~ CreativeMarket ~ Sellfy

Now What?

Build a Tribe, Not Just an Audience

CONNECTION IS CURRENCY

Go to the social platforms where your audience hangs out -TikTok, Facebook, Instagram or YouTube.

Speak to them about their pain points and dreams. Show the positive changes your product will bring. How your digital product offers them a solution.

Create content like transformation or problem-solution stories, or even simple tips & tricks related to your product's niche.

Keep Going!

Nurture Your Tribe

The Ultimate Social Media and Email Strategy for Your Digital Product.

The key to mastering social media and email marketing is to start small but think big.

Choose one platform that you're comfortable with and unleash its full potential.

Use all the features the platform offers: Live Videos, Community Channels, Reels, Posts, Carousels, Stories, Interactive Polls to name a few to connect with your tribe.

It's A Win!

Rinse and Repeat

Once you've got a good grasp on your first platform, analyze what's working.

- ▶ What kind of posts are getting the most engagement?
- ▶ What times are your audience most active?
- ▶ Use this data to refine your strategy.

Now, translate this winning formula to other platforms, one at a time.

Each platform has its unique flair and audience, but your core message and aesthetic should remain consistent.

Don't Forget!

Power of Email

Email is your direct line to your audience, free from the whims of social media algorithms.

Regular updates, special offers, and personalized messages can turn subscribers into loyal customers.

Remember, it's not just about broadcasting your message; it's about starting a conversation and building a community of like-minded individuals.

Each platform, including email, offers a unique set of tools for engaging your audience.

Fast Track Ideas

Create in a day

Creating, publishing, and selling a digital product in a one day is an ambitious goal!

But certainly doable for simpler products.

The key to success is to choose a product that is:

- ▶ Manageable to create within a short time frame
- ▶ Requires minimal investment
- ▶ Has a target audience you can easily reach

Fast Track Ideas

- ▶ Meal Planning Templates: Use Canva to design a beautiful, easy-to-follow weekly meal planning template. You could create this in an hour or two.
- ▶ Meeting Agenda Templates: If you're familiar with corporate meetings, jot down an effective agenda structure in Word or Google Docs.
- ▶ Email Templates for Professionals: Write 5-10 common business emails (e.g., follow-ups, introductions) and compile them into a neat PDF.
- ▶ Grading Rubric Templates: Teachers always need these. Use Excel or Google Sheets to create a simple, straightforward grading rubric.
- ▶ Activity Printables for Kids: Design a coloring book or a simple puzzle game. Both can be done quickly using Canva.
- ▶ Home Organization Checklists: Use a tool like Notion, Canva or Google Sheets to create room-by-room decluttering checklists.
- ▶ Social Media Content Calendars: If you have experience in social media marketing, a simple 1-month content calendar is extremely useful for many.
- ▶ Resume Templates: Design a clean, professional resume template in Word, Google Docs, or design software like Canva.
- ▶ Journal Prompts: Write down 30 journal prompts and compile them into a PDF. This could even be done in a simple text editor.
- ▶ Printable Quotes Wall Art: Choose 5-10 of your favorite quotes, use Canva to make them look pretty, gather them into a digital file for printing.
